Sharing Jesus With Children Around The World

Penned Through His Servant,
Lynne R. O'Quinn

This book is dedicated to the glory and honor of Jesus Christ, my beloved Lord and Savior. All words are God-breathed. It is He Who is Creator and Author. I praise Him for equipping me to do the work for which He has called me. To Him be all praise.

I do wish to thank my dear friend and His loving servant, Sue Powers. I praise God for her trust and obedience in Him as she so lovingly formatted and “colored” this book with His vision. I thank her for many hours of work and, also, for her persistence and tenacity!

I cannot close without thanking God for all the precious children He has placed in my path throughout the years. To all my little kindergarten friends, I hope you will always remember your “graduating” lesson - God’s Message of Hope. Chase, Connor and Dorothy - not a word was written without seeing your smiles and faces. The Lord has used you in a mighty way. To my most precious grandsons, Ethan and Cole - always remember as much as your MiMi loves you, God loves you more! May God reveal Himself to you in a very personal way. It is my deepest prayer that you both will invite Jesus Christ into your lives as Lord and Savior. Forever let His Son shine.

Jesus said,
Let The Little Children Come To Me

And Do Not Hinder Them,
For The Kingdom Of Heaven
Belongs To Them.

Jesus helped to create all that you can see.....

Earth, ocean, mountains, ants, whales and chimpanzees!

When the world was finished,
God smiled at what was done.

After all the animals God then created man.

A likeness of Himself,
God made him with His hands.

Out of dust He formed him,

with good brains and heart.
Life God breathed into him and thus man's life did start.

Man was different from all others,
with God he could speak.

God loved man,
Man loved God,
His fellowship he'd seek.

God named his man-friend Adam.
He had to have a name.
Adam was the only one,
there was no one else the same.

So from Adam's rib God created his wife Eve.
They lived in the Garden of Eden with no desire to leave.

Such a place of beauty God gave them to live.
Fruit trees of every kind to them God did give.

They could eat from any tree,
all except for one,
if they ate from this one,
their life here was done.

Along came the serpent, he sweetly tempted Eve.
He said to her,
“Eat the fruit.
You won’t have to leave.”

Eve made the choice to eat from that forbidden tree.

She said “Wow!
This is good.

Nothing happened to me!”

She took the fruit to Adam, said “Here, Adam, eat!”

He made the choice to take a bite of this tempting treat.

God gave them freedom of choices they would make and any choice, especially wrong, has consequence to take.

So shame fell upon them and overcome by grief, they tried to hide their shame from God behind a big fig leaf.

Their perfect world had ended, no more could they be in fellowship with Holy God for God is sin free.

God, who is holy,
cannot come within the presence of wrong doing.
That, my friend, is sin.

So Adam and Eve were banished, made to go away, from the garden and God on that so sad day.

Where once they could live forever
with no work or care.
Now they had to struggle and death was everywhere.

Separated from Father God was the hardest part, but God had made a perfect plan before the world did start.

God had planned to send His Son down to this sinful earth.
He came as a little baby through a virgin birth.

In a lowly manger God's Only Son did lay, God's perfect plan and Lamb for Crucifixion Day.

See, Jesus chose long ago to leave
His heavenly throne
And come to earth where sinners live-

He wants us to come home.

For Jesus is the only One who can bridge the way

Back to Holy God
and in His Presence stay.

God sent Christ Who had no sin to come die in our place.
His Only Son took all our sin.
What mercy, love and grace!

Our Savior made us right with God, fellowship restored.

We can come into His Presence like Adam did before!

All our sins forgiven,
Jesus chose the cross for me.

It's the gift God gave us.

Take it now, it's free!

In faith believe on the cross
Jesus was nailed upon.
He gave His blood so death would die.
This victory He won!

Within three days He arose, yes, Jesus Christ is risen!

Ask Him now to enter your heart and all your sins are forgiven!

Eternal life is ours to keep,
with faith you must believe.
Heaven is our eternal home,
one we will never leave.

God Who created all the world in love for you and me, now has our place in heaven where we'll forever be.

Yes, Jesus came and saved us from all the wrong we've done
And God loved us that much
He sent His Only Son.

So whoever believes in Him shall live eternally.
Oh, I know now just how much God loves you and me!

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Begotten Son,

that whoever believeth in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life.

Jesus Christ

is a free gift from God to anyone who believes in His Son.
If you have made the choice to invite Jesus into your life, you can pray this prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus,

I am a sinner and need You to forgive my sins.

Thank You for giving Your life for me.

I know and accept I am forgiven.

I ask You to come into my life.

Thank You for Your free gift of everlasting life.

I ask this in Your name. Amen.

Lynne Robertson O'Quinn resides in Fayetteville, NC where she was born and raised. She is married to husband, Dan, and has a daughter and son, Heather and Drew, and son-in-law, Van. Her two grandsons are Ethan and Cole.

Lynne teaches Sunday school and area Bible studies. She is District Consulting Coordinator for Stonecroft Ministries and is currently working on a children's Bible study.

As the Holy Spirit spoke to her through the children's Bible study work, He placed upon her heart a burning desire to see not only local children but all children of the world come to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior. This became a daily prayer, asking God for the opportunity and means with which to reach all His children. God is faithful and answers prayers asked in faith. He answered Lynne one early August morning in 2008 when He literally woke her to go write. She sat down and the words to this book came faster than she could write them down. Not one word or sentence was changed...There is no improving upon God's Words. May He reveal Himself to His children of the world as He speaks to them through these pages.
